

Media Release

Tiger Airways Offers Special Fares on Malaysia Routes & More; Single and Combo Flights at Big Discounts

- Singapore to Kuala Lumpur from only S$26 / RM59 including taxes; book from 9 to 14 July
- other routes also at big discounts from 9 to 11 July for 3 days only!
- travel periods vary; check details and book on www.tigerairways.com while stocks last!

Singapore, 8 July 2010. Tiger Airways has put on offer attractive discounts for its Malaysia routes, for booking between 9 to 14 July 2010.

These include both single flight sectors between Singapore and Kuala Lumpur, Kuching and Penang, as well as Flight Combos to/from these Malaysian cities to other Tiger destinations in Asia Pacific. For instance, a single flight between Singapore and Kuala Lumpur is only S$26 or RM59 including taxes, and a Flight Combo from Kuala Lumpur to Singapore and Singapore to Ho Chi Minh City is only RM173, with taxes included.

Other international routes including those between Perth and Singapore are also on discount, for booking only within the next three days 9 to 11 July 2010.

Rosalynn Tay, Managing Director of Tiger Airways Singapore, said, "As more customers log onto our website during Air Asia's system shutdown over the next three days, they will be pleased to see that our fares are still so low or even lower. We look forward to serving more passengers by continuing to offer the lowest possible fares, and innovative services such as priority boarding which we have just introduced this week."

Travel periods differ for the different routes. The discounted seats are only available within the promotion period, on a first come, first served basis. Grab them at www.tigerairways.com now!

END