Tiger Airways Celebrates 15 Million Passengers with 15-Cent Fares

- Fares to Hat Yai, Phuket, Krabi, Kuching & Kuala Lumpur from only 15 cents plus taxes
- Fares to Bangkok, Jakarta, Manila (Clark), Haikou and Macau from only $15 plus taxes
- Book from 5 to 11 August; Travel periods vary for different destinations

Singapore, 4 August 2010. To celebrate the carriage of 15 million passengers today, Tiger Airways is offering fares from 15 cents excluding taxes.

Rosalynn Tay, Managing Director of Tiger Airways Singapore said, "Tiger Airways is recognized as the fastest growing carrier in Singapore, and the biggest low cost carrier in Singapore. Our growth will accelerate as we expand our fleet, fly to more destinations such as Taipei, and increase flights to hotspots like Hong Kong and Jakarta. We look forward to serving many more million passengers with our low fares and innovative services such as boardmefirst™."

The celebratory 15 cent fares (one way, excluding taxes and charges) are for limited seats to Hat Yai, Phuket, Krabi, Kuching & Kuala Lumpur. Other routes on promotion are Bangkok, Jakarta, Manila (Clark), Haikou and Macau, with fares from only $15 plus taxes. Travel periods vary for each route.

These celebratory fares are available for booking before sunrise on 5 August and until 11 August 2010, while stocks last. Grab them and other low, low fares on www.tigerairways.com.

Tiger Airways' 15 millionth passenger is 28-year old Singaporean Mr Chan Chee Meng. He was flying from Singapore to Bangkok on TR2108 for a holiday with friends. He has traveled with Tiger Airways for a number of times, and chose Tiger for its lowest fares after comparing different airlines. Mr Chan was presented with a pair of tickets to Taipei, Tiger's newest destination that will commence flights on 11 January 2011.
